Crazy Horse and Chief Red Cloud includes a gathering of old time warrior and relative prtrayals originally in Lakota reflecting upon Sioux culture and tow great men of the same trive. Early writers did not speak the native language and hence could not interview in the native tongue nor did they seek any concepts or knowledge of the Sioux spirituality. Too many of these writers have errantly attempted to create a rivalry and animosity between the tow and hence downgraded and diluted the magnificent Sioux culture, its rich history and great leaders such a culture could produce.
