The Wind At My Back : Volume 1: Sand Dunes and Snow Caps Elisa B: Chalem

Elisa B. Chalem's life during the period covered in Sand Dunes and Snow Caps was uncommon and exotic. She grew up in Cairo, Egypt, in pampered circumstances, as a Sephardic Jew of Greek extraction. She traveled extensively in Europe and spent her high school years in Swiss boarding schools. She endured the early loss of a beloved father, fell for the man of her dreams in a fairy-tale romance, had her first child, and seemed to be leading a charmed life—until, with the rise of a nationalist Egyptian government, her whole world collapsed. Having become persona non grata in the country she had called home, she left to begin a new life.

Elisa Chalem, who has dedicated this book to her beloved granddaughters, lives in Northern New Jersey.
