40 Prayers for Loved Ones Living Without Christ (40 Prayers Series) D. Duane Engler, Jack Lundberg

You may encounter someone living without Christ at some point in your life. It could be your sister, your brother, your father, or your mother. It could be a grandparent or an uncle, a cousin or an in-law. It could be a friend, a son, or a neighbor. It could even be your spouse.

Words can't describe the agony of knowing that a loved one is teetering on the brink of eternity in hell by not accepting Jesus Christ into their heart. You want to do anything and everything possible to reach them and help them experience the joy, the peace, and the love that you've found, but everything you do comes up short.

Prayer is the most powerful thing you can do to allow God to work in their life. They may never come to you to lead them to salvation or ask you for advice. But by being an example to them, we may encourage them to come to terms with God on their own.

I know it breaks my heart, and probably yours, when someone we love rejects Christ, but we must stand firm with patience and prayer. God will provide in His timing, so live with confidence and be a resource for a trainable mind eager and willing to learn about the Lord.

Let's get to prayer.

To God be the glory,
