Lily Stevens has a good life and is excited when her 21st birthday finally comes around. She can't wait to get out to the club and enjoy the night. But she soon finds out that she may have bitten off more than she could chew. When she meets Craig Jones she is taken on a whirlwind of fantasy and pleasure. Craig is rich and famous and just what she thinks she needs for the night. They have their night and she soon goes back to her life as normal. Within weeks, she starts seeing him everywhere and finds that he will be in her life a little longer than planned. Her opinion of him changes when she finds that although he is sexy as sin, he is also arrogant and cocky. Although she can't stand to be around him she can't help but have an attraction to him that she can't hide or fight. After he finally leaves she finds herself attached to him for life. When the little plus sign comes up on the pregnancy test she is terrified and horrified. At the news of his engagement to someone else she keeps the baby a secret until her conscience gets the best of her and she must come up with a way to tell him he is a father and that she kept it from him.

Craig has a simple carefree life. He has more money than he could spend and loves the fast life. Deep down, however, he desires a family. After the death of his parent's he has raised his brother from the tender age of 17. Now they have an empire that they made themselves. But what fun is it to have things in life when you have nobody to share them with. He meets Lily and she makes him feel more alive than he has in a long time, but she won't open up. Deciding to go back to life where it is easy he finds another woman who can help him achieve the things he wants in life. Although the spark that he has with Lily is missing, he knows some things aren't meant to be. There is one problem. When he finds out that he is a father a year later can he walk away from her for good?
