100 FUNNY Ideas For Kids To Draw!

Joe Loren is back with another "What Should I Draw?" book for kids. This time, your kids will have a hundred laughs with these hilarious ideas for pictures they can draw. If you are looking for funny drawing books, look no further.

- - "My child enjoyed your first book, and he's a funny kid so I think he'll love this..."

- - "...well you made both my son and daughter draw more because they know they are drawing something funny - thanks."

In this book, your kids get one hundred different things to draw, all different funny situations, scenes, people, places, animals, vehicles, and more. Instead of learning what to draw and how to draw it, your child must rely on their imagination and creativity to draw the ideas that are given to them in the book.

Some ideas in the book include:

- Dogs on beaches
- Kids flying away while holding balloons
- Bears in business suits going to work
- Snowmen putting together a HUMAN
- Worms in fruit
- People falling
- And many more drawing ideas that will give you and your kids a laugh!

When I was a kid, I was constantly asking my family, friends, even strangers what I should draw next, and all I really needed was a book like this to give me fresh drawing ideas and drawing inspiration to get me drawing and creating and dreaming again.

If you are looking for drawing books for kids free from in-the-box instructions, this is the book you want. Your child will find many different funny settings and situations to draw in this book, and loads of ideas to make their drawings and creations truly unique.

Get this book now and give your kid the ideas to fuel their next drawings.
