Religion was essential to the development of America so much so that America could not exist as it is without it. What were the religions that came to America and was the New Testament church among them? Currently there are 41,000 different religions all professing to be the church. Logic says that can't be since they each practice something unique. Where was the New Testament church before and after America became a nation? Was the Restoration necessary? Is the true church here today and is it a denomination? These questions are answered and many facts about the New Testament church will be shared within this book.
