El arte perdido de la conversación (Spanish Edition) José Carlos Carmona Sarmiento

En "El arte perdido de la conversación", José Carlos Carmona, conocido por sus obras "Sabor a chocolate", "Sabor a canela" o "Cuentos para después de hacer el amor", reinventa la tradición realista del mejor relato corto norteamericano (principalmente de Raymond Carver, al que homenajea en el tercer relato, y de Lorrie Moore), proyectándolo en la cotidianeidad de la sociedad española. Los catorce relatos aquí reunidos son una reflexión, a la par amable y satírica, del día a día de cada uno de nosotros. El lector se sentirá identificado con los momentos de mediocridad e incomunicación en las relaciones interpersonales, a veces inevitables y otras ni siquiera sospechados, que el observador lúcido transforma en literatura. Relatos inteligentes, divertidos y de exquisita ironía, que aúnan lo ridículo y lo sublime de los seres humanos. Absolutamente recomendables para todos aquellos que desesperan del actual panorama literario en nuestro país.
