It Ain't The Money!: Principles For Success Yael Eylat-Tanaka

Success is a word that has many connotations. For some it means the accumulation of massive amounts of money, and the toys that it can buy. However, success has a far broader interpretation. The driving force behind success may be distilled into one word: mindset. Without the proper mindset, success remains an elusive specter. This book will explore what success means, along with a look at the philosophies of some of the greats minds down through the ages. Your own thoughts and beliefs about success can thus be redirected and bloom into a self-actualizing life.
