SABOT ROUND by Vivian J Phillips - fact based thriller (ww2)

Four heinous, seemingly unrelated crimes take place in and around London. Fearless, charismatic British Agent, Peter Bless, is put on the case to find out who, or what organisation, is behind them. One subtle clue after another, points to a German link. To prevent him uncovering the truth, savage and remorseless attempts are made on his life, which he narrowly survives though not without collateral injury to his Austin Reed jacket.

Sabot Round imagines the possibility that Hitler actually survived, and with the resources gathered through the plundering of Europe, planned it's eventual control.

Naturally, Sabot Round is a work of fiction. Could it happen? As it is wisely written, 'Evil succeeds when good men do nothing.' Let the readers' judge and above all, be entertained.
