Carthage Conspiracy: The Trial of the Accused Assassins of Joseph Smith Dallin H Oaks, Marvin S Hill
Our book is intended to have significance for both scholar and layman. We have tried to look at the trial as a significant legal event in Mormon and American history. But we have tried not to lose sight of the fact that good history is good narrative. Our introduction and concluding chapter may be of special significance for the scholar, but for most readers the point of interest will be the story between.
