How do I start my own business?

What form should it take: corporation, partnership, LLC?

How do I bring family members into the business?

How do I recruit and motivate top employees?

How can I maximize my retirement savings through my business?

What do I need to do today to ensure that my business will continue if I become disabled or die?

What is my business worth?

How do I position my business for a sale?

What is the best way to pass the business and my other assets to my heirs, including those who are not active in my business?

Strictly Business answers all of these questions and more. Whether you own a business or are thinking about starting one, Strictly Business provides insights and information you can put into practice now—with the help of your advisors—to ensure that your business and your legacy thrive, now and into the future.
