BOOKS 10, 11, and 12 OF THE DANCING MOON RANCH SERIES

PLEASE NOTE: There are four trilogies within the Dancing Moon Ranch Series, and the books are intended to be read in sequence as the series spans thirty years and two generations.

BOOK 10: FORBIDDEN SPIRITS: Tyler Hansen has two passions: Roman riding his horses as a rodeo specialty event and learning the source of the voices in Whispering Springs. All his life he's had a curiosity about the humanlike sounds in the mountain and he's determined to solve the mystery. Rose Starbright, a tribal member who works at the living museum on the ranch, also has two passions: weaving baskets, which she sells in galleries, and preserving sacred sites, Whispering Springs being one of them. As legend goes, when a person sits immersed in the spring and listens to the voices, that person is cleansed of evil spirits. Tyler has his own theory and it has to do with trapped geysers, not spirits, so when he starts opening fissures Rose warns him to stop, that silencing the voices could have dire consequences. But Tyler doesn't believe in spirits, only science, so he continues his crusade. And then one day, the mountain is silent. And that's when Tyler's troubles truly begin.

BOOK 11: IMPERFECT MAGIC: Dimitri Matthias, an upcoming illusionist with aspirations of becoming the next David Copperfield, is offered a proposal by a Las Vegas entertainment company: create a horse-disappearing act he can carry out on stage and he'll get his own show. The problem is, Dimitri's never been around horses, so he hires Maddy Hansen to teach him the basics, mainly because he sees in her his perfect stage assistant... except that Maddy's a dyed-in-the-wool ranch girl whose dream of starting a riding camp for disabled children is already in the works. What Dimitri doesn't count on is falling in love with a woman, and a way of life, that until then had escaped him. His transformation from Las Vegas showman to rugged cowboy also has Maddy taking a second look. Yet, Las Vegas is where Dimitri's future lies and neither of them know how to reconcile that.

BOOK 12: FINDING JUSTICE: Two memories are fixed in Julia Barker's mind from the day of the Oklahoma City bombing: being trapped under a building, terrified it would collapse, and Mario, the young U.S. Marshal who came to her aid and was trapped with her. She'd never gotten his last name, but even after two decades the feel of his arms around her and the sound of his voice in the pitch blackness of the rubble are still clear. And then one day he walks back into her life. When Mario Moretti escorts Jeremy and Billy Hansen back to the Dancing Moon Ranch as the first step in phasing them out of Witness Protection, he's stunned to find there the woman who'd haunted his memory for years. But as in the past, there was no place in his life for a wife, and nothing had changed, not even the loneliness.
