My life was so unbelievable, I hardly believe it myself. When knocked down I got up and dusted myself off--quitting was never an option. Unaware my tenacity was a gift from the Lord God. I was oblivious its His will to be glorified through me (and you). Until I learned to stop living for self, and live as He wills...I would continue the cycle of one-step forward, two steps back. Tired of always fighting for victory, I actually yelled at the Living God looking up from the floor saying...

"Leave me alone! If you're not going to help--I'll do it myself."

Ignorant of what He did for me on the Cross, shortsighted and blind to His blessings. I didn't see the LORD was helping me, prompting my heart. He certainly answered me with bold discipline. He is a Father. My words came very close to cutting me off from the One who gives life. I don't suggest anyone ever tell The Almighty what to do--especially--leave you alone. He is the LORD who also takes life. (Ex 34:5-7) (Mt 7:21)

He answers prayer in His time, His way, when you seek Him first - obey His will and keep His Commandments. (Mt 6:33) I cannot express how grateful I am for His vast love, mercy, forgiveness, and patience...with me.

This is not my life's story, but testimony of God's transforming power and the warning I heard September 2006: "Short Time - Repent - Turn to Me" (Typed as heard). Led to verses in both testaments by His Spirit (I'd have to have the 66-books of the Bible memorized to find the Scripture used). January 2008, I had a dream repeating the same message:

"Tell them to Repent - Tell them to Repent - Tell them to Repent!"

After this, I began typing, and since then...I'm compelled to witness to anyone...before its too late.

"My sheep hear My voice, I know them and they follow Me." (Jn 10:27)
