Curl up with a sweet escape tonight. First Class Stamp is a perfect escape from the mundane day-to-day life, and Ben's story is sure to capture your heart.

(For mature audiences only – Adult content)

Ben, the last of the Lathem brothers to remain single, has a mantra; he is happy and content. He tells himself over and over again hoping that one day he may actually believe it. Running his brother's company and living the life of a well-to-do bachelor, Ben isn't looking for love.

Sophia is a single mom and a devoted daughter. Helping out her dad in the family business, the corner market across from Ben's apartment, her son meets Ben and forms a friendship, throwing Ben and Sophia into one another's path. Romance and love are the last things on her mind, but Ben is what every woman dreams of marrying.

Maria works for Ben in Rio de Janeiro and her ten year old son has been Ben's pen pal for years. When she is transferred to New York, will the smoldering lust that has lain dormant for years be ignited?

One man and two women. He has a choice to make. Where will his heart lead him?
