Your thoughts and choices can affect more than just your attitude. The constant flow of negative energy from all around you can seep into your mind like a sponge sucks up water. If you pull in enough negative energy, you will eventually only think negatively, which can lead to negative occurrences in your everyday life. In order to turn this around, you will need to learn to think positively and use that positive energy to influence the world around you. The power of positive thought will not only affect your attitude, but the attitudes of those you interact with. It can even affect what happens to you in your life, like a magnet drawing other good positive energy toward you.
