Open up this illustrated compendium for advice on: pretending to be an only child, navigating a mom's brain, and how to say goodbye to your very favorite pet alligator when he gets to big for your room.

FROM THE BACK COVER:

They asked me to write some stuff for the back cover of this book and I said, "Gimme a break! No one ever reads the back cover of a book." I mean, the back cover is for the stupid, boring stuff they won't put on the front cover. Like take those dumb black bars and the price of the book if you bought it in New Zealand. Is that stuff really necessary? I could make a list of dumb things that people put on the back of books but there are a lot more interesting lists inside. So my advice to you is to stop reading this, turn the book over, and start enjoying the good stuff!
