A Hole in My Heart - Finding Hope Through the Seasons of Change Autumn Ater

From the first day you grieved your loss, you were already starting on a journey of changing seasons. With each passing day, month and year, these times have brought with them a different perspective; a different way of thinking, feeling and acknowledgment of our loss and the pain that accompanies it. Each new season brings forth opportunity to come into a closer walk with God, learning a new way to deal with what God's purposes are for our lives.
