“Oh shit! It’s late” – she thought looking at the clock on the wall. As usual, she was staying after hours at work, but today she overdid herself, because the clock was showing almost 10 pm.

Everybody had left the building a long time ago, only the light at her desk was on, even the cleaners had left all the offices.

She quickly packed her things, throwing them randomly in her purse, turned off the computer and started walking towards the elevators. When she stood there, waiting for an elevator to come, she heard footsteps on the corridor.

Surprised, she glanced over and saw that Paul from the law department was walking in her direction. They had been working in the same company for a couple of years, but somehow they never got to know each other better.

All she knew was that he was quite a shy, calm guy with a nice voice. He wasn’t too handsome but there was something attractive about his face...
